STOCK MARKET EMERGES FROM ITS STATE OF COMA

Growing Disposition to Begin Anticipation of Wonderful Crops Promised.

BETTER RAILROAD STATEMENTS Brokers Report Slight but Distinct Improvement in Inquiry for Securities of Semispeculative Nature.

BY BROADWAY WALL. New York, May 27.—Beginning from the state of coma into which it had recently fallen, the stock market today emerged and strengthened.

Steel, common, rose to 62 3/4, a new high for this movement. Carrying the weekly dividend of 1 1/2 percent, which comes off on next Monday, steel common looks attractive. If any fall can be placed in favorable reports from the West, there will be an abundance of traffic for railroads today, and of all the industries on the list, steel common is the most representative and in the opinion of many, the best.

Union Pacific common still carries a fine bill that entitles the purchaser to the extra dividend. It is held by cash and a proportionate share of the Baltimore and Ohio stock, now held up by the courts, a quarterly dividend of 2 percent comes off on Monday.

No advance in stocks on improvement in sentiment has been noted. It would include Union Pacific, one of the best managed and most prosperous of the trunk lines.

Southern Pacific also sells ex-dividend and 1 1/2 per cent on Monday. Shares were strong today on a dip from 50 to 51, and the fact that the company had issued orders for all shares to resume on full time in distribution of the extra dividend. Sentiment in the West is cheerful.

Purchasers of either of the stocks made today, to secure the extra dividend. Offerings of stocks are in small amounts, and buyers who wait for a more active market will no doubt meet competitors at higher prices.

Canadian Pacific made an extreme gain of 3-5/8. There was an early advance of 1/2 point, but it was followed by a decline to 51 1/4. Harvester gained more than a point. Bethlehem Steel was firm and the copper stocks after early irregularity turned strong at the close.

While London quotations were well above the low level of last month, they were strong today on a dip from 100 to 101, and the fact that the company had issued orders for all shares to resume on full time in distribution of the extra dividend. Sentiment in the West is cheerful.

The market was strong today on a dip from 100 to 101, and the fact that the company had issued orders for all shares to resume on full time in distribution of the extra dividend. Sentiment in the West is cheerful.

There were many bullish private reports from the West, and the fact that the company had issued orders for all shares to resume on full time in distribution of the extra dividend. Sentiment in the West is cheerful.
